

~ANI'KUTANI INDIAN TRIBE & NATIVE AMERICAN NATION~

Ani'Kutani is:

Ani'Kutani Indian Tribal Nation derives its name from a long ancient history of Spiritual Guides, and Leaders. "Ani'Kutani" literally means "The Ancient Ones," of Turtle Island in the Keetoowah / Tsalagi language. This particular Nation is made up of many clans that consist of those Aboriginal Indians such as; Quapaw, Chahta-Choctaw, Keetoowah-Cherokee, Tonkawa, Ouachita-Washita, Wampanoag, and many more. These Indigenous Indians are spread throughout, and across the Northern American Continent. The main goal of the Ani'Kutani Indian Nation, is to be perceived as that Great Nation, setting the epitome for what a Nation should be; e.g. clean, pure, and of benevolence. This Nation will strive to chaperone, and provide for those other Aboriginal Indian Natives, that have lost their way, and have forgotten the task appointed by the Great Creator YaHaWaH. Which is to heal, teach, assist, and nourish, but most importantly Unite.

Setting The Record Strait:

The Ani'Kutani were known by many different names. Such as the Anasazi, Atlantans, Amaru-Khans, Ouachita-Washita, Olmecs, and Mound Builders; to name a few. What, and who the Ani'Kutani truly were, was described as "The Ancient Ones," who did sojourn here in the Americas, before the Conquest of the Colonizers. These Colonizers knew that they had stumbled upon a great civilization of families, and or Clans, whom had created a vast network of people. In fact, these people had evolved their Tribes into Kingdoms, then on to Empires. These same Colonizers; also knew that in order to destroy this miraculous Conglomerate of Nations. They essentially would have to first infiltrate the inner workings, by overthrowing its leaders, and invoking "Tribal Corruption" by any means necessary. Needless to say, by having these Spiritual Leaders disband, or simply put to death.

These Colonizers offered money, used war and disease, along with good old fashion Propaganda, as devices for eradicating what had been structured, long before their arrival in the "Old World". Insomuch as, the tactic that seemed to work the best was Propaganda used against those that they; could not locate and kill. These Foreign Colonizers began to pull at the heart strings of the Natives, by spreading rumors such as Blood, and Child Sacrifice, or Sexual Infidelities, along with a list of other falsified doctrine in the form of this said Propaganda. Having conjured, was to extinguish the so-called New World, of these Heathens, and Savages. In Consequence, certain atrocities were implemented, to make way for a so-called New Conquest, on the ancient frontier.

These same tactics are still being practiced today, by way of those in power who[m] know in order to have a society, you must “Create” a Tyrant via Propaganda orchestrated through the (MSM) Main Stream Media. In addition, once you get the people to become emotional, and fearful, of a foreign so-called invader (boogie-man). They will be willing to go to War based upon assumptions, and rumors, not factual evidence. This is an age-old scheme utilized to create animosity amongst a people; simply “be the cause and the solution”.

These same Colonizers were familiar with, and had mastered the art of Conquering. The first point of attack was to find weak, and desperate Natives, to use as spies. Secondly, get rid of the Elders because they contained the wisdom and knowledge that was orally passed down, and very seldom written. Thirdly, defeat the Warriors of the Clans. Fourth, subdue the women by way of terrorizing them, in the form of rape, and kidnapping. They also took the children, and placed them into boarding schools and appointed foster parents over them, and these Children were never seen again. Nevertheless, all the while knowing that this action would sequentially destroy Tribal Unity. Lastly, these same Colonizers, introduced those that remained to a foreign “Gawd-God-Dogma / Religion” under the sword, and any Natives that refused; were made examples of. These Invaders knew that this was the proper method applied when Conquering a Nation; and its people.

What ultimately led to the destruction of the “Ancient Ani’Kutani” was a technique applied by way of these foreign Colonizers. This was a strategy called Gaslighting, which did result in cognitive dissonance, and a feeling of insecurity, not knowing what was true, and what wasn’t, became commonplace, for the Natives. Those who survived this mind manipulative game referred to as Gaslighting, became victims of this “created doubt”, within their own internal sense of what was real, whether they be perceptions, memories, or cognitions of events. The Natives did struggle with the differences between them. In conclusion, the past Ani’Kutani Natives, ultimately ended up relying strictly on emotions of uncertainty. Wherefore, they did succumb to making illogical, and irrational decisions, which in turn led to the demise, and downfall of themselves. This was the fate of a great number, but not all of the “Ancient Ani’Kutani”, at the hands of their own Natives. These aforesaid invaders simply provided the means, and or motives to do so, by presenting gifts wrapped-up with bows, to those Natives that did harbor hate, and jealousy, within their hearts for their Chiefs. The Amaru- (Khans-Kings) Spiritual Leaders, and Elder-Ones.

Where Are They Now:

The Ancient Ones are still walking amongst us, within us, and fighting for us. We as true Aboriginal-Indigenous Peoples must initiate the practice of our Ancient Cultures, Customs, and Languages once again. It is imperative that we, take back what was stolen from us, and our children. Each one must commence to teach one, it does indeed take a village to raise a child, primarily in its first seven years.

It is our solemn duty, as the descendants of the Ancient Ones, to rebuild our families, to produce great Clans. Rebuild our Clans, to produce great Tribes, and rebuild our Tribes, to produce great Nations. We must learn to put away differences between our Nations. Having properly done, we shall be granted the opportunity to come together, and thrive, and become those Tribal Pioneers that we are destined to be. So that those in the future may learn the ways of the Ani’Kutani, and live suchlike Our Ancestors did, that came before us. Rather you call them the “Anasasi, Ani’Kutani, Atlantans, Aztecs, Amaru-Khans, Olmecs, Ouachita,” they all began with the “Alpha & Omega.” This is why the “A & O” are so important; for they are the beginning, and the end, and do radiate the hidden attributes of “Our Creator.” Whom the “Keetoowah;” children of YaHaWaH, call the “Great Spirit.”

The High Chief; known as Three (3) Eagles, being of Ouachita / Keetoowah, and Chahta lineage, was given this name “Ani’Kutani” by way of the “Great Spirit” in meditation. Therein, he was appointed with the task of rebuilding the Great Aboriginal Indian Nation of Nations. In addition too, he was told to bring them all back together underneath a Tribal Confederation. Regardless of, you being an Indigenous Native located on the Northern, Central, or Southern portions, or the adjoining Islands of the Americas, you are still part and parcel of this “Miraculous Empire,” that once ruled for six thousand years. Once known as Great Mu, Turtle Island, Washita Empire. You will always be considered as the “Ancient Ones,” which dwell within you.

So we welcome you “Children of the Ancestors” living in modern times, known as the “Ani’Kutani American Indian Nation”, annexed to the “American Aboriginal Nijji Confederation” of Tribes.
